

Southern Pines Shopping Tour

Downtown Southern Pines has always served as a center of commerce, being the major railroad station in the late 18th and 19th centuries. Pinehurst's Transportation Department offers day shopping trips to the area, featuring art galleries, bakeries, cafes, bookstores, wine shops, pottery shops, gifts and accessories stores and more. Nearby Campbell House Galleries and local crafters' shops are also parts of the Southern Pines experience.

Tour Details: A local expert will take you to Southern Pines to visit a variety of shops and galleries. The tour will depart from the Carolina Hotel. A map of downtown Southern Pines will be provided. Any purchases made can be shipped directly from the shops. If guests are hungry or thirsty during the shopping tour, there are a number of sundry and refreshment establishments. At the end of the shopping experience, each person can participate in a private wine tasting at the Wine Cellar. When in Southern Pines, be sure not to miss the following shops:

Campbell House Galleries

Monkee's Shoes

Lyne's Den

Denker Dry Goods

Wild Hare

Eve Avery

Please dress comfortably casual.

Price: $70/person. Includes lunch, wine tasting, transportation, gift, guide & bottled water

$60/person. Includes lunch or wine tasting, transportation, gift, guide & bottled water

$30/person. Includes transportation (drop off & pick up), guide & bottled water

Based on 4 person minimum.

Mallory Caddell

910.235.8783

mallory.caddell@pinehurst.com